

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Edwin A. Merritt, Jr., having received a majority of all the votes cast, the Clerk declared him duly elected Speaker of the Assembly of 1912 and appointed Messrs. Young and A. E. Smith a committee to conduct the Speaker-elect to the chair.

Mr. Speaker, on taking the chair, addressed the House as follows:

I thank you for the honor which you have conferred upon me by electing me Speaker of this Assembly for the session of 1912. For ten consecutive years I have been a member of this House and occupied a place upon the floor, and it is naturally most gratifying to have been elected Speaker. I accept the office with the intention of performing the duties to the best of my ability. It will be my purpose to treat with fairness every member of the House, and to so conduct the business of the House and construe its rules as to protect every member in his rights and privileges. I do not consider it part of my duty as Speaker to declare or dictate policies, but to conduct the business of the House in accordance with the rules, the Legislative Law and parliamentary precedent. The Republican members are in the majority in this House as the result of the last election. For many and different reasons the electors in a sufficient number of Assembly districts have expressed a preference for Republican membership in this body. With success and majorities goes responsibility. It depends upon the manner in which the majority acts in this Legislature whether the electors of the State will feel at the close of the session that they acted wisely in returning the Republican party to power in this House.

May I suggest: That no things can contribute more to a satisfactory and useful session than a diligent attention to the business of the House and a settled purpose to have harmony of action on the part of the majority.

Mr. T. K. Smith offered for the consideration of the House a resolution, in the words following:

Resolved, That the House do now proceed to the election of Clerk; that the roll of members be called by the Clerk, and that each member, as his name is called, rise in his place and openly name his choice for such office.

Mr. Cuvillier offered for the consideration of the House a resolution, in the words following:

Whereas, Postmaster-General Hitchcock desires to recommend to Congress this session a plan for acquiring the telegraph lines by the government, to be operated as a part of the postal system;

And whereas, Section 5267 of the Revised United States Statutes prescribes a method whereby the government may for postal, military or other purposes, purchase telegraph lines operating in the United States at an appraised value;

And whereas, There is a monopoly now existing in the United States of the telegraph business consisting of two companies, to-wit: Western Union and Postal Telegraph Companies, and the prohibitory rates charged by said companies is a deterrent to the commercial development of many sections of the United States and its Colonies, in approximately fifty countries of the world, notably in Great Britain, France, Germany, Austria, Italy, Spain, Russia and Japan, government control telegraphs now are in successful and profitable operation; in many of the countries, they are operated in connection with the postal service; these telegraphs serve an aggregate population of nine hundred and fifty million, and in every instance they have been found to be of immense practical benefit to the people, in both promptitude and cost of service.

Be it resolved (if the Senate concur), That it is the sense of the Legislature of the State of New York that the United States government should acquire the existing telegraph companies, now operating in the United States, for the benefit of all the people, so that the rates may be reduced in accordance with the postal service now successfully conducted by the United States government; and

Be it further resolved, That the members of Congress from the State of New York be and they are hereby respectfully requested to use their best offices in this direction; and

Be it further resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to each member of Congress from the State of New York, the President of the United States, the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Said resolution giving rise to debate, ordered that the same be laid upon the table.

By unanimous consent, Mr. Young moved to reconsider the vote by which his resolution of February 1st in relation to the meeting of the Assembly on Tuesday, February 6th, for the nomination of a Regent of the University in place of T. Guilford Smith, and also a Regent of the University in place of Lucian L. Shedden, deceased, was passed.

Mr. Speaker put the question whether the House would agree to said motion to reconsider, and it was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Hinman offered for the consideration of the House a resolution, in the words following:

The Assembly learns with deep regret of the death of Hon. Bradford R. Lansing, who had served the State in this Assembly continuously from 1906 and served with distinction and fidelity; in his death the community loses a citizen of the highest character and attributes.

Resolved, That when this House adjourns to-night it adjourns out of respect to the memory of Hon. Bradford R. Lansing, and that a copy of this resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to the members of his family.

Mr. Hinman: Mr. Speaker, two years ago when I first became a member of this House there was no one better known here than our departed friend and fellow member Bradford R. Lansing. Ten years ago when I first entered the practice of the law, Mr. Lansing was the mayor of the city of Rensselaer, in the conduct of which office he displayed those same qualities which have endeared him to us all.

At that time I was associated with the corporation counsel of the city of Rensselaer; and in that capacity I learned to respect him most highly, and admire in him those qualities which made him a true friend and efficient public servant.

Two years ago when I first entered this chamber as a member I was fortunate enough to select a seat near the one which he occupied; and being affiliated with him I learned to know him still better.

To few men is it given to leave such a strong impress upon the minds and hearts of those who knew him, because few were endowed with his pure heart, nobility of character, sincerity of purpose and steadfastness of mind.

True to himself, true to his friends, true to the people whom he served so well, there can be no doubt that he was true to his God. No words that I can utter here to-night can fittingly express my admiration of his sterling character.

No tribute is necessary to characterize his record here. It speaks for itself.

It is rather for us, the living, to highly resolve that this noble and pure life, this right man's career, shall not have been spent in vain so far as we are concerned, but shall be an inspiration to us and through us a blessing to the people whom we serve. May it be said of each of us, as it can unqualifiedly be said of him, he was a Tribune of the people, faithful unto the end.

Mr. Wende: Mr. Speaker, four years ago when I first came to this Chamber, I had no acquaintances here except those who came with me from Buffalo. My observation taught me that among all the members the one that was most likely to aid and assist me and steer me rightly was Hon. Brad Lansing. I formed a warm friendship for him. I knew that he was in every way qualified to guide me. I knew that he was a man who attended to his duty, who never failed to be in his seat during the entire session unless unavoidably kept absent by illness, which only happened twice in six years — two sessions in six years. It sometimes happened that I had to be away from here when matters of legislation were on that required attention, and it was to Mr. Lansing that I addressed my letters, well knowing that he would honestly and conscientiously carry out my wishes in the matter if they were honest and fair, and that he would be in his seat. Frequently that occurred.

This session I miss many dear friends here, but no one with that degree of regret that I have in missing Mr. Lansing.

I second the motion for the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Frisbie: Mr. Speaker, I cannot let this opportunity pass without adding my word of appreciation of the late member from Rensselaer, Mr. Lansing. I had been associated with him many years and had come to have for him a sincere respect; a respect which grows among us here as we meet and mingle with each other. And while we may sit on opposite sides of the main aisle and be devoted to the principles of opposite parties, we cannot overcome our admiration and respect for an opponent who from conviction and conscience advocates his side of the case though opposite from ours. I believe that Mr. Lansing always had in mind what from his point of view was for the best interest of his district, and for the best interest of the people of the State of New York. We might not agree with him upon any given question, we were compelled to give him credit for honesty of purpose and sincere conviction that the stand he took upon any measure was from his point of view the right stand.

Legislators are not always appreciated at their true worth. It has been said that while we live we are merely politicians, and that only when we pass away become statesmen.

I believe that history will fix the status of our friend from Rensselaer as one of those who battled valiantly for the people's interest from his point of view and as entitled to be classed among the statesmen.

Mr. Speaker put the question whether the House would agree to said resolution, and it was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Young offered for the consideration of the House a resolution, in the words following:

Resolved, That the Assembly attend as a body the funeral of our late associate, Bradford R. Lansing, and be it further

Resolved, That the Sergeant-at-Arms be and hereby is directed to accompany the Assembly to such funeral, and that the expenses be paid from the contingent fund of the Assembly upon the certificate of the Speaker.

Mr. Speaker put the question whether the House would agree to said resolution, and it was determined in the affirmative, a majority of all the members elected to the Assembly voting in favor thereof, and three-fifths being present.

Mr. Murray offered for the consideration of the House a resolution, in the words following:

Concurrent resolution providing for a special election in the city of New York for the submission to the vote of its qualified electors the question of municipal operation of railroads acquired or constructed by the city and at the public expense.

Whereas, Pursuant to the provisions of section thirty of chapter four of the Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-one, entitled "An act to provide for rapid transit railways in cities over one million inhabitants," and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, the Public Service Commission is authorized and empowered to maintain and operate rapid transit railroads in the city of New York whenever in the opinion of the board of estimate and apportionment of such city either a contract for equipment, maintenance and operation, or a contract for maintenance and operation, would be inexpedient or prejudicial to the public interest; and

Whereas, The Public Service Commission has laid out and adopted routes for a rapid transit railroad system in said city independent of the existing system, to be constructed at the public expense, and has transmitted and is continuing to transmit to the board of estimate and apportionment of said city contracts for the construction of said railroad for the approval of said board and the appropriation of the money necessary to carry them into effect; and

Whereas, A radical difference of opinion has arisen in the minds of the people affected by this vitally needed public improvement upon the question whether such railroad system, when constructed, shall be operated by private corporations for their profit or by the municipality in the public interest; and

Whereas, The determination of the question necessarily affects the future of all rapid transit development in the city of New York for at least fifty years to come, and is therefore of supreme importance to the city, its business interests and inhabitants taxed to pay the cost of this great public improvement.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a special election shall be held in the city of New York on the first Tuesday in April, one thousand nine hundred and twelve, in the manner provided by law, at which special election there shall be submitted to the vote of the qualified electors of the city the question whether the railroads under construction by the city at the public expense, and railroads hereafter acquired by the city, and railroads hereafter constructed by the city at the public expense shall be operated by the Public Service Commission for the city, and to that end it shall be the duty of the board of elections of the city of New York to prepare, print and supply to such electors at such election ballots containing two columns, each with a voting circle, above which circle in one column shall be printed "For municipal operation of rapid transit road," and above the circle in the other column of which shall be printed the words "Against municipal operation of rapid transit road." The provisions of chapter six hundred and eighty of the Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, entitled "An act in relation to the elections, constituting chapter six of the general laws," and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto shall apply to the conduct of said special election as far as the nature of the case may allow. Upon the canvass of such votes by the board of city canvassers, it shall be the duty of said board to file with the board of estimate and apportionment of the city of New York a statement which shall declare the total number of votes cast in said city "For municipal operation of rapid transit road," and the total number so cast "Against municipal operation of rapid transit road."

which was referred to the committee on the judiciary.

By order of the Senate,

PATRICK E. McCABE,

which was referred to the committee on ways and means.

The Senate sent for concurrence a resolution, in the words following:

IN SENATE, ALBANY, February 5, 1912.

The Legislature has learned with inexpressible regret and profound sorrow of the death of one of its best loved members, Hon. Thomas F. Grady. In point of service the oldest member of the Legislature, he has for many years occupied a most distinguished place in its deliberations and by his pre-eminent abilities and kindly traits of character had won and held the affectionate esteem of his fellow members.

Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That in testimony of our deep and sincere affection for our late colleague and as a tribute to his personal worth and public service, the Senate and Assembly attend his funeral in a body.

Resolved, That a committee of five Senators be appointed by the President of the Senate to prepare resolutions and arrange for a suitable memorial session of the Senate in memory of the lamented Senator.

By order of the Senate,

PATRICK E. McCABE,

Clerk.

Mr. Frisbie: Mr. Speaker, in rising to second the joint resolution I have not in mind at this time the delivery of an eulogy. An appointed time will be fixed for that. But I think it entirely proper that this body should take more than passing note of the resolution that is before us from the fact that the late Senator Grady was for at least three years a member of this body. Here he laid the foundations of his splendid service to the State of New York as a legislator. Senator Grady never quite lost his sympathy and affection for the Assembly and its members. I speaking personally when I say that he always manifested a friendly and brotherly interest in his fellow legislators in this House and his generous treatment of legislation coming from the Assembly to the Senate was not confined to the legislation which originated among the members of his own party.

For several years we were party leaders of the two Houses, and during those years my relations with him were close, confidential and personal. I felt honored to enjoy his confidence; because Senator Grady was a man who could see below the surface. He hated the sham; he loved the sincere that lies in men's hearts. He was a sincere man himself. We might disagree with him on a given question, but his sincerity must be conceded.

He was a loyal soldier, and aside from his brilliant personal qualifications and the splendid personal reputation which he made as an orator, as a thinker and as a logical expounder upon the floor of the House and the Senate, he added that other to be admired quality, loyalty, to his party and its principles and its leaders.

Not always did the judgment of the leaders of his party perhaps coincide with that of his own personal view; but as the loyal and faithful soldier follows his general into the thick of the fight, so Senator Grady always championed the interests and followed his leader into the thickest of a political contest.

Senator Grady believed in a government by party. He belonged to the old school. Studying the history of his country he concluded that the interests of the people had always been conserved through the two great parties. Having chosen the one he never halted, he never faltered, he never had any misgiving as to the correctness of its principles, and the benefit which from his point of view would come to the country through the triumph of those principles and its candidates. All men must respect a man of that sort.

Such was Senator Grady.

His party has lost its ablest champion in the Houses of the Legislature. His eloquent voice will no longer be heard upon the platform, but his memory will be kept green in the hearts of all who knew his noble qualities of mind and heart.

Mr. Murray: Mr. Speaker, my first contact with Senator Grady occurred some ten years ago. We were both interested in common litigation at that time. Although I was then quite a young man and my judgment was far from mature I recognized in him a man of extraordinary ability and a lawyer of unusual accomplishments.

But my affection for the Senator really arose to a high degree since I became a member of the Legislature.

I seldom agreed with him or he with me concerning political questions; but I have always had a profound respect for his opinions and his position.

Senator Grady was a man of extraordinary talents. He might even be said to be a man of genius; and that his qualities were so marked that they excited the respect and esteem of all who knew him.

But he had other qualities that pervade the soul to an extent that genius and talents alone could not have done. He was a man of warm heart, of courteous and genial manner. He was an approachable man. There was something in his personality that was comforting; that suggested assistance.

In his long political career he developed a great degree of influence. And that was exercised in behalf of those who sought his help. I know of no greater service that a man can render in this life than lending a helping hand to the needy and those who call upon him. There are many in New York to-night who were the recipients of such favors, and at this time rise up and call him "blessed."

He was loyal, as Mr. Frisbie said, to his party and to his convictions. I have always insisted that loyalty was an inborn quality, was a trait of greatness that could not be acquired and could not be learned.

He was eloquent, unusually eloquent. Eloquence indicates a degree of character; eloquence indicates a fine mind and a deep, genuine noble sentiment. He had his frailties, he was not perfect. But with all these things, his talent, his genius, his kindly heart, his frailties, he was human. And he was respected and loved in this House and in the other chamber.

He was a man of courage. His life indicated courage. And his last conscious moments indicated the highest degree of courage, when he uttered the most assuring words of his whole life, "I am not afraid to die."

He was not the sort of a man, who like the Pharisee of old stood upon the street corners and thanked God that he was better than other men. But like the publican who would not lift his head and smote his breast, he said "Lord be merciful to me a sinner." And that man found favor with the Great Creator and Righteous Judge. Senator Grady entered the Valley of Shadow with courage, with the belief and with the conviction of a reward. So may it be with each of us that when we are about to step into the Valley we may be able to say, "I am not afraid to die."

Mr. Young: Mr. Speaker, in moving concurrence with this resolution on this side I want to say that I have been very deeply impressed by the eulogies on two men who are known to and loved by us all. There ought to be a tonic in what we have heard here to-night for those of us who have wabbling convictions and nervous and timid hearts.

Bradford Lansing never permitted anybody to guess what his convictions were, and he never wavered one single minute in carrying out what he believed was right even though he knew he faced defeat. In that respect he was seconded by Senator Grady. His convictions were clear. And while many times, as has been said here, some of us did not agree with those convictions, no one was ever at a loss to know what he thought. And if it was necessary to place himself in a position where sharp criticism and censure were made for his view, there was no hesitation. It is a reminder to us that after all manhood is admired. That there is nothing in this world so highly and deeply appreciated as a big, strong, courageous heart.

I am pleased to move concurrence in this resolution.

The Speaker put the question whether the House would agree to said resolution, and it was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said resolution to the Senate, with a message that the Assembly have concurred in the passage of the same.

The Senate returned the concurrent resolution in relation to the joint session of the Senate and Assembly for the election of a Regent of the University to succeed Hon. T. Guilford Smith, and a Regent of the University in place of Hon. Lucien L. Shedden, deceased, with a message that they have reconsidered the vote by which said resolution was adopted, and amended the same to read as follows:

Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That at the hour of twelve o'clock, noon, of Wednesday, February 14, 1912, the Senate and Assembly meet in joint convention as provided by law for the purpose of comparing nominations for the office of Regent of the University for the term of twelve years in place of T. Guilford Smith, of the city of Buffalo, county of Erie, whose term of office is about to expire; and to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Lucian L. Shedden of the city of Plattsburg, county of Clinton.

Mr. Speaker put the question whether the House would agree to the reconsideration of the vote on the final passage of said resolution, and it was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Brooks offered for the consideration of the House a resolution, in the words following:

Whereas, There is no subway station on the Lenox avenue line between Ninety-six street and Broadway and One Hundred and Tenth street and Lenox avenue, a distance of over one and one-half miles; and,

Whereas, Such subway route between such points passes through a thickly populated district in which over fifty million dollars of capital is invested; and,

Whereas, The citizens of that community have petitioned the Public Service Commission for the construction of a station at One Hundred and Fourth street and Columbus avenue; and,

Whereas, No action has been taken by the Public Service Commission in respect to such petition;

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Legislature, public interest demands that a subway station be established and maintained at the junction of Columbus avenue and One Hundred and Fourth street in the city of New York, and that a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Public Service Commission of the first district with the request that the matter be given immediate attention.

Mr. Merrill offered for the consideration of the House a resolution, in the words following:

Whereas, A bill has been introduced in Congress, by the member from the Fifth Wisconsin District, Hon. Victor Berger, providing for the condemning, acquiring, and operating by the United States government, of all railroads, telegraph, telephone and express properties engaged in interstate commerce; and,

Whereas, Said bill further provides for the appraisal of all such properties at their actual physical valuation by a commission of experts in the valuation of properties; provision being made for the issuance of two per cent. interest bearing bonds to be offered in exchange for the shares, bonds or other certificates of ownership of the companies owning such properties, at a pro rata value, such exchange to be based upon the actual value ascertained to be embodied in such certificates of ownership; in the event of the owners refusing to surrender such properties to the United States government, at their appraised valuation the President is authorized to employ such means as may be necessary to take possession; and,

Whereas, The present owners of such means of transportation, communication and exchange no longer operate them for public use at a fair remuneration, but utilize their ownership for personal gain and aggrandisement without regard to the safety, comfort or convenience of the great mass of the population; the prohibitory rates charged by said owners is a serious deterrent to national development and imposes a positive hardship on the great mass of our people, who rely for service mainly on these agencies; the further reduction of operating expenses by the railroads of some ninety millions of dollars annually, secured mainly by the wholesale reduction of the operating forces, already too small; has rendered travel unsafe and hazardous in the extreme and finds its logical corollary in the annual death or injury of approximately one hundred thousand operatives; and,

Whereas, The policy of Federal regulation or control of public utilities owned by private individuals or corporations has failed to, in any appreciable extent, mitigate these or kindred evils, or to secure to the workers a greater portion of their labors' product, which, in the words of Abraham Lincoln, "is a worthy object of any government"; and,

Whereas, Experience has amply demonstrated that government ownership of public utilities is the next logical step in the course of industrial evolution, a step which has already been taken in whole or in part by many of the most powerful nations, notably

Great Britain, France, Germany, Austria, Italy, Japan, Spain and Russia; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That it is the sense of the Legislature of the State of New York that the United States government should acquire, as speedily as possible, the existing railroad, telegraph, telephone and express properties now engaged in interstate commerce and operate the same, democratically, in the interest and for the benefit of all the people; and be it further

Resolved, That the members of Congress from the State of New York be and they are hereby respectfully requested to use their best efforts in this direction; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to each member of Congress from the State of New York, the President of the United States, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Cuvillier offered for the consideration of the House a resolution, in the words following:

Whereas, There exists in the State of New York a voluntary and an unincorporated association known as the New York Fire Insurance Exchange with headquarters in the city of New York. Said Exchange, by its arbitrary rules and by-laws, fixes the rate of fire insurance in the city of New York, and which all fire insurance companies, doing business in the city of New York, must accept the rates so made by the New York Fire Insurance Exchange; and

Whereas, By chapter 748 of the Laws of the State of New York, 1911, the Superintendent of Insurance of the State of New York was authorized to license all insurance agents and brokers, doing business in the State of New York, and collect the sum of $10 per annum as a fee or tax to be paid by the insurance broker or agent doing business; and

Whereas, Since the enactment of said law, the New York Fire Insurance Exchange has caused to be collected and is collecting the sum of $10 per year from each broker and agent doing a fire insurance business within the city of New York, and on the payment of said $10, as aforesaid, said New York Fire Insurance Exchange issued a certificate of authority to do fire insurance business within the city of New York, and no broker or agent can do business within the city of New York unless he procures a certificate of authority and pays the sum of $10 to the New York

Fire Insurance Exchange, and there are 10,000 brokers doing business in the city of New York in which the New York Fire Insurance Exchange collects the sum of $100,000.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Attorney-General of the State of New York be directed to furnish an opinion to the Legislature forthwith, if said New York Fire Insurance Exchange, an unincorporated and voluntary association, is not a monopoly and an organization in restraint of trade and violating the laws of the State of New York and, if so, should'n't said New York Fire Insurance Exchange be criminally prosecuted for the violation of the law, and be compelled to refund the moneys heretofore illegally collected.

Whereas, The late William P. Letchworth, philanthropist, statesman and humanitarian, whose work in behalf of the poor and the children especially will go on forever; and,

Whereas, He devoted his life, money and home for the betterment of conditions for the weak and strong alike, that the great State of New York may reap the fruits of their citizenship and society be free of the unfortunate ills; and,

Whereas, He founded his home with a happy thought, that others may some day enjoy his labor, and in the closing days of his life, performed the benevolent act, giving "Glen Iris," his home and park to the State, that all may enjoy it; and,

Whereas, The Association of County Superintendents of the Poor and Poor Law Officers in convention assembled, set June 28, 1911, as a memorial day, in honor of the late William P. Letchworth; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That six thousand copies of the proceedings of that memorial session of the Association of Poor Law Officers of the State of New York be printed and suitably bound as befits the man and his deeds; and be it further

Resolved, That three thousand copies be delivered to the secretary of the Association of County Superintendents of the Poor, for distribution, and three thousand copies for the distribution of Senators and Assemblymen of Legislature 1912.

Every person who knowingly or willfully in anywise procures the making or presentation of any false or fraudulent affidavit or affirmation concerning any claim for pension or payment thereof shall in every case forfeit a sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars to be sued for and recovered by and in the name of the said board of trustees, and when recovered to be paid to and thereupon become a part of the said police pension fund. Any person who shall wilfully swear falsely on any oath or affirmation in obtaining or procuring or attempting to obtain or procure any pension or payment thereof under the provisions of this act shall be guilty of perjury. From and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and ten, the board of police shall quarterly in making the pay rolls for the department deduct a sum not to exceed two per centum per annum of the respective salaries paid to the persons entitled to share in the police pension fund except that the janitress attached to police headquarters shall be required to pay only the same sum for her salary as is deducted from the maximum salary received by any other janitress and except that members of the fire department who shall become members of the police force shall pay an additional two per centum of their respective salaries for such period of time as they shall have served as members of the fire department from and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and ten, and said board shall certify the amount of such deductions and the names of the persons from whose salaries such deductions shall have been made, and such certificate shall accompany the pay roll, and a warrant for the amount of the deductions so certified shall be drawn payable to the order of the treasurer of the police pension fund. Pensions shall be granted by unanimous vote of the board of trustees of the police pension fund:

"1. To the widow of any member of the police force, and to any of the employees of the department known as engineers at police headquarters, linemen, the employees in the electrical bureau, the clerk to the superintendent, the stenographer to the board of police and the superintendent of the electrical bureau, who shall have been killed while in the actual performance of [police] duty, as a member of the force or employee of the department, or who shall have died from the effects of an injury received while in the actual discharge of such duty, the sum of not less than three hundred dollars per year so long as she remains unmarried; if there be no widow of such deceased member or employee, then such annual pension shall be paid to his child or children him surviving, if any, so long only as such child or children, or the youngest of said children shall continue under the age of eighteen years. In the event of the death of the widow of such deceased member or employee, who at the time of her death is drawing a pension as provided in this act, then such annual pension shall be paid to the child or children of such deceased member or employee of the police department, if any, so long only as such child or children, or the youngest of such children, shall continue under the age of eighteen years. No pension shall be paid under this title to any child over eighteen years of age. And if there be no such widow, child or children of such deceased member or employee, then such pension shall be paid to his parent or parents, provided such parent or parents were dependent upon such deceased member for support, and such time only as such pension shall be necessary for the support of the parent or parents.

"2. The board of police shall retire and the board of trustees shall grant a pension to any member of the police force and to any of the employees of the police department known as engineers at police headquarters, linemen, employees in the electrical bureau, the clerk to the superintendent, the stenographer to the board of police and the superintendent of the electrical bureau, who, while in the actual performance of [police] duty, as a member of the force or an employee of the department, and by reason thereof and without fault or misconduct on his part, shall be injured or become permanently disabled, physically or mentally, so as to unfit him for the performance of full police duty, or duty as an employee of the department, the amount of which pension shall not be less than one-fourth of the salary or compensation per year received at the time of such retirement and shall not exceed the sum of six hundred dollars annually. Police matrons and janitresses who become totally disabled, physically or mentally, while in the service of the department, shall be entitled to a pension of not less than one-fourth nor more than one-half of their annual salary or compensation, except that the janitress attached to police headquarters shall not receive a pension of less than one hundred and fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars per annum.

"3. The board of police shall retire and the board of trustees of the pension fund shall grant a pension to any member of the police force, and to any of the employees of the department known as engineers at police headquarters, linemen, employees in the electrical bureau, the clerk to the superintendent, the stenographer to the board of police and the superintendent of the electrical bureau, who, by long service and exposure while in the actual service of the department, shall have contracted without fault or misconduct on his part any disease or disability, which permanently incapacitates him from performing full [police] duty, as a member of the force or employee of the department. Such pension shall be in the sum of twenty-four dollars for each year of service, not exceeding, however, the total sum of six hundred dollars. Pensions on account of disability or injury shall be granted only upon the affidavit of the surgeon of the police to the effect that such injury or disability exists and is permanent. If, however, the person with reference to whom the affidavit is made is dissatisfied with the conclusions therein set forth, either as to the existence or non-existence of the injury or disability or the character of the same, he may file a statement to that effect with the board of police within thirty days after the filing by the surgeon of police of said affidavit with the board of police, and thereupon the trustees shall select two competent physicians and surgeons and the certificates signed by them and verified by their oaths shall be final and conclusive as to the matters in said certificates set forth for a period of one year thereafter, and shall be accepted in lieu of the affidavit of the surgeon of police in so far as it certifies to the existence of an injury or disability of a permanent character. The fee of each physician and surgeon shall be paid by the person examined. The police matrons and janitresses shall be granted the privileges of this fund, so far as it relates to their children. On and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and thirteen, upon the application of any member of the police force, of rank higher than that of sergeant, or lieutenant of police as the case may be, who shall have served twenty-five years in the police department, the board of police shall retire and the board of trustees of the police pension fund shall grant a pension to said person; said pension shall be in the sum of seven hundred dollars per annum for twenty-five years of service and shall be increased in the sum of twenty dollars per year for each year of service in excess of twenty-five years until the amount of eight hundred dollars per annum is reached. On and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and thirteen, upon the application of any member of the police force equal to or below the rank of sergeant, or lieutenant of police as the case may be, or upon the application of any of the employees of the department known as engineers at police headquarters, linemen, employees in the electrical bureau, the clerk to the superintendent, the stenographer to the board of police and the superintendent of the electrical bureau, or of any janitress employed by the department of police who shall have served twenty-five years in the police department, whether such service shall have been continuous or otherwise, the board of police shall retire and the board of trustees of said fund shall grant a pension to such member or employee; such pension shall be in the sum of six hundred dollars per annum, except in the case of janitresses who shall each receive as such pension the sum of three hundred dollars per annum. Nothing herein contained shall affect the claim of any annuitant to whom any annuity has heretofore been allowed from the police life insurance fund or the police pension fund, but such annuity shall be paid by the treasurer out of the police pension fund, so long as the board of trustees shall so direct, the same as if the claim thereto had arisen subsequent to the time when this act shall take effect. And the board of trustees may, in its discretion, and by a majority vote and in accordance with the provisions of this act, grant pensions to widows of deceased members of the police force, and to annuitants under the police life insurance fund or police pension fund, where death or retirement has occurred prior to the passage of this act, and has been caused by disability acquired in the service of the department. In computing the time of service of any member of the police force for the purpose of this section, the term of service of such member on any regular police or fire department's force of the city or upon the park police force of the city as formerly constituted, shall be taken the same as service on the police force of the city, and it shall not be deemed necessary for the purposes of this section that such service shall have been continuous. In computing the time of service of all members of the police force for the purposes of this section, the term of service which they shall have served as employees of the police department previously to being made members of the police force, shall be computed and allowed the same as service rendered on the police force of the city. All officers and employees who are retired under the provisions of this act and who are drawing pay from the said pension fund may, when able to act, perform duty in case of emergency, and may be accepted to perform temporary duty by the commissioners when satisfied that they are able to serve. While so serving on temporary duty they shall be entitled to receive compensation not exceeding three dollars per day to be fixed by the board of police, in addition to their pension, which shall not be in any manner affected by such temporary service. Except as hereinbefore in this subdivision provided, no person drawing a pension pursuant to the provisions of this title shall receive other or further compensation for any services rendered as an officer or employee of the State of New York or of any municipal corporation therein. Provided, however, that any such person may accept a position as officer or employee of said State of New York or any municipal corporation therein, but shall not be entitled to receive any part of the pension money provided by this title during the time such person is holding such State or municipal office or employment. All pensions provided for herein shall be payable monthly. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to entitle any janitress to receive a pension exceeding three hundred dollars per annum."

A message from the Governor was received and read, in the words following:

STATE OF NEW YORK — EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
ALBANY, March 12, 1912.

To the Assembly:

I 'return herewith, without my approval, Assembly bill (Printed No. 719) entitled "An act in relation to the board of supervisors of Rensselaer county, authorizing the said board of supervisors to ascertain, determine, audit, allow and pay the claims of certain court attendants, jail officials and jail employees employed by the board of supervisors of Rensselaer county during the year nineteen hundred and eleven."

Soon after taking office in August last, the sheriff of Rensselaer county discharged certain officials and employees who had served under his predecessor in office, and appointed others in their places. On the same day the board of supervisors of the county, in special session, passed a resolution reciting that by reason of the discharge of said employees, a vacancy existed in the offices in question, and under guise of an alleged authority conferred by chapter 359 of the Laws of 1911, the board designated another set of employees (said to be the identical ones who had been discharged) to fill such offices. The sheriff's employees were the ones who thereafter actually rendered services to the county. It has since been declared in a sweeping decision of the Supreme Court, that the board of supervisors was absolutely without authority to make the appointments, such employees having been appointed by the sheriff "from time immemorial." A careful reading of the decision (which has been unanimously affirmed by the Appellate Division) convinces me that the action of the board of supervisors was not only unwarranted but absolutely without excuse; it can be explained only as in the nature of a partisan reprisal for the dismissal by the new sheriff of the employees selected by his predecessor. But this action of the sheriff, however vulnerable from the standpoint of the ideal, was at least recognized by custom and authorized by law; whereas the attempted interference by the board of supervisors was inconsistent with any ideal, unwarranted by custom and absolutely unlawful. And now that this political sharp practice has been rebuked by the courts, it is proposed by legislative enactment to "recall" the decision and load upon the long suffering taxpayers the burden of paying for unnecessary services, which have not been rendered, by certain ones who are declared by the court never to have been employed.

The act not only authorizes, but directs the board of supervisors to audit and pay the claims of these "employees." The Executive declines complicity in such legalized misuse of the people's money. It is inconceivable that the Legislature would have approved this measure, if conversant with the facts, which have compelled me to veto the bill.

JOHN A. DIX.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the Senate, with a message that the Assembly have concurred in the passage of the same.

Mr. Greenberg offered for the consideration of the House a resolution, in the words following:

Whereas, It has been the consistent policy of our government to maintain this country as a refuge for the oppressed of all nations from the evils of monarchical and tyrannical rule, and this policy has not only met with the hearty support of the people of the respective States, but has brought to our shores those immigrants who have not only added to our number and wealth, but shared with us in the development of our great country, which through their and our joint efforts has now taken its place among the first powers of the earth; and

Whereas, The Congress of the United States is now about to amend our immigration laws with a view to further restricting immigration; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That, if the Senate concur, that while realizing the need of preventing undesirable persons being added to our population, we view with great concern any change in such laws by which property, educational or religious restrictions may be enforced under any guise whatever, or distinctions made between the countries whose people are now eligible upon immigration to become citizens of this country, as such change whether through administrative measures or others in so far as it is effective is a departure from a fundamental principle of our government, and hereby formally protest against any such change.

On motion of Mr. Young, consideration of said resolution was postponed until Thursday next.

The Senate sent for concurrence a resolution, in the words following:

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Prayer by Rev. Robert J. Hogan, Schenectady.

On motion of Mr. Young, the reading of the journal of Saturday, March 16th, was dispensed with and the same was approved.

A message from the Governor was received and read, in the words following:

STATE OF NEW YORK — EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,

ALBANY, March 18, 1912.

To the Assembly:

I herewith return, without my approval, Assembly bill (Int. No. 526, Printed No. 548), entitled "An act to enable the town of Shelter Island to acquire docks and landing places for public use and to regulate the use of the same, and to legalize certain acts of the town board of such town in relation to an existing dock therein."

This is a local act. It authorizes the town of Shelter Island, in the county of Suffolk, to expend money, which may be appropriated by the electors in a town meeting, in the purchase and building of docks, etc., within said town, and to regulate the use of such docks; and it also legalizes and confirms the purchase and building of an existing dock and certain expenditures in connection therewith, and in keeping such existing dock in repair.

The expenditure of money in the future purchase and building of docks in said town is one subject; that of ratifying and confirming all of the proceedings in connection with the purchase of an existing dock and the expenditures of money in the maintenance of the same, and all of the acts of the town board in respect of such dock, is quite another subject. I accordingly consider the bill as violative of section 16 of article 3 of the Constitution, which provides that no private or local bill which may be passed by the Legislature shall embrace more than one subject, and that shall be expressed in the title.

JOHN A. DIX.

On motion of Mr. Talmage, said message together with said bill was ordered laid upon the table.

A message from the Governor was received and read, in the words following:

STATE OF NEW YORK — EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,

ALBANY, March 18, 1912.

To the Assembly:

I herewith return, without my approval, Assembly bill (Int. No. 660, Printed No. 698), entitled "An act making an appropriation for the payment of the expense of the repair and extension of the dam at the foot of Augur lake, Essex county."

This bill appropriates the sum of $1,000, or so much thereof as may be needed, to compensate private persons for repairing and extending a dam at the foot of Augur lake in Essex county "for the protection of the public health." The object of the work done was to eliminate certain vegetable growths, disagreeable in color and odor, by raising the water of the lake. But in its report for the year 1910, the Department of Public Health, in an extended report of an inspection of the alleged unsanitary conditions of this lake, expressly declares that the conditions in question were not such as to constitute a nuisance and not detrimental to health. The expenditure on the dam was thus apparently for private purposes only: if there really exists a question as to the responsibility of the State by reason of the alleged water conditions (and I may say in passing, that there is no proof that the State owns this body of water), it should be submitted to the Board of Claims, which has been constituted for the purpose of determining just such matters.

(Signed) JOHN A. DIX.
